Personal.

HOBAN.—Alderman Hoban has been in Kansas on business for the past few days.

NASH.—Mrs. Nash and Mrs. Griggs, of Ottawa, Ill., are visiting Mrs. Samuel Brown, at Wenona, Ill.

ALLEN.—Mayor Allen has resumed the reins of municipal government, having returned from his Michigan trip.

INTERRED.—The remains of Thos. Donahue, of Chatsworth, at one time a resident of this city, were brought to Ottawa for burial on Monday.

OUT.—Messrs. Daly, Tryon and Yentzer, representing J. E. Porter's hay tools, started out on a business tour. No house in the city more thoroughly advertises Ottawa than J. E. Porter.

CLARK.—E. H. Clark, of this city, is now traveling salesman for Illinois for the Japan Tea Syndicate of Yokohama and Hiogo, Japan. He has been in Ottawa for a few days, seemingly well pleased with his new occupation.

MEGAFFIN.—Joseph Megaffin and family, now citizens of northwestern Iowa, have returned to Ottawa for the winter. Mr. Megaffin is much improved physically by his year and a half residence in the healthful climate of his adopted state.

TITLED.—This is the way in which Ottawa gentlemen are granted titles of nobility by the Texans, who appreciate the work of such men as our good friend Dr. J. O. Harris, who is still in that state. The Big Springs Pantagraph says: "Dr. J. O. Harris, sometimes called the 'Duke of Midland' from his energetic labors in the interests of our young and prosperous neighbor west, favored the Pantagraph with a call on Thursday. The Doctor—we beg pardon—the Duke, says Midland is flourishing remarkably well—has now a solid basis for support in the numerous ranchmen and grangers round about, whose numbers are constantly increasing; that building is continually going on, a neat school house finished, emigrants' house nearly done, Llano hotel also nearly completed, and other buildings erected, to say nothing of the best depot and platform on the road, stock yards, etc. The Duke 'made us tired,' especially when he said he wanted to consult us privately about making Big Springs a suburb of Midland, and moving the railroad shops to that place. The audacity of these titled gentlemen is proverbial, but this wss a little too much and we told him to 'give us a rest.'"

Amusements.

What may be considered the great dramatic event in Ottawa will be the appearance tonight of Miss Fanny Davenport and her company in her play purchased of Sardou, entitled Fedora. The company and play have undoubtedly the greatest dramatic merit of anything ever in Ottawa, and everybody who can should not miss the opportunity of seeing Fanny Davenport and Fedora to-night. The admission prices are very low.

DAN SULLY'S CORNER GROCERY.

The above entitled funny play, in which Dan Sully, of course, plays the leading part, started its career in New York last July having a run there of over ten weeks and during the extreme hot weather made a hit, in fact, is pronounced the most laughable play ever produced on the stage. The New York Herald pronounces it "a resistless flood of merriment" and we have no doubt there is "piles of fun" in it all of which can be seen at the Opera House on Wednesday night, the 29th inst. The bill says in Act 1 "You Yell," Act 2 "You Roar" and Act 3 "You Howl."

Convincing.

The proof of the pudding is not in chewing the string, but in having an opportunity to test the article direct. C. M. Forbes, the druggist, has a free trial bottle of Dr. Bosanko's Cough and Lung Syrup for each and every one who is afflicted with coughs, colds, asthma, consumption, or any lung affection.

The Streator Rally on Wednesday last was rather unfortunate in the matter of weather, there having been a heavy rain on Tuesday, which made the roads in that end of the county impassible, which was followed by a raw, cold wind on Wednesday, which increased in strength and decreased in temperature through the day and evening. There was only such an attendance as could get in over the railroads. The crowd was large in the afternoon, for an afternoon meeting, the main attendance being expected in the evening. The afternoon meeting was addressed by Hon. P. C. Haley and W. J. Hynds, of Chicago. The latter made a magnificent address, which made a very favorable impression. In the evening there was a procession of probably 1200 men—not so large as was expected or hoped for, but still large considering the state of the weather, and particularly the beastly state of the streets, which were not fit for a marching procession, Main street being one mass of mud. Streator is not the place for a showy parade, if she appears every night as she did the other night, dark and gloomy and muddy,—not an electric light out, and the gas shining like tallow-dips, though nearly every house on the street was lighted up. After the parade Hon. Carter Harrison made an address from the Plumb House steps, the only dry place in town; and he held his audience of about 1,000 to the end, appending to his English speech a short address in German. At eleven o'clock the meeting broke up, and the visitors returned home, with wet feet and half frozen.

A Great Discvoery.

Mr. Wm. Thomas, of Newton, Ia., says: "My wife has been seriously affected with a cough for twenty-five years, and this spring more severely than ever before. She had used many remedies without relief, and being urged to try Dr. King's New Discovery, did so, with most gratifying results. The first bottle relieved her very much, and the second bottle has absolutely cured her. She has not had so good health for thirty years."

Trial bottles free at Lutz & Briggs' Drug Store. Large size $1.00

Register.

Tuesday is the last day for registration of voters. The Board will on that day be in session at Esq. Lockwood's office in precinct one, and at Schaefer's hall, in precinct two. Voters who are not registered must appear now in person. It will greatly facilitate voting on Nov. 4th, if every voter will see that his name is properly registered. Let it be done.

Extreme Tired Feeling.

A lady tells us "the first bottle has done my daughter a great deal of good, her food does not distress her now, nor does she suffer from that extreme tired feeling which she did before taking Hood's Sarsaparilla." A second bottle effected a cure. No other preparation contains such a concentration of vitalizing, enriching, purifying and invigorating properties as Hood's Sarsaparilla.

The County Superintendent has on his list of applicants for the position of teacher in public schools some 6 or 8 male teachers, and about the same number of female teachers. All of these have certificates, and with one or two exceptions have experience in teaching.

The Gossiper.

A bridegrooom walked up the church aisle,
His coat hadn't very much staisle;
When asked by his bride,
Why he hadn't more pride,
He said that it wasn't whaisle!

* * *

The crowd of Ottawa Democrats that came over last night was rather noisy. Quite a difference from the Republicans who came from there when Oglesby spoke here.—Streator Free Press.

Of course, Democrats don't all wear "biled shirts," and wear a stand up collar, lardy dah, and are not as sanctimoniously quiet as Col. Plumb on the truth of the Fox River Railroad business. Of course, Democrats make a noise and we know the dudes of the Free Press are disturbed thereby; nevertheless it is not at all likely the Plumb crowd own Streator or that the town as a whole is averse to having an excursion of 600 ladies and gentlemen call on them even for political purposes. It is too bad there isn't to be another mutiny out there so that the artistic Free Press men could request Democrats to cut the laboring men off their list of excursionists, and send out only wearers of broad-cloth and silk stockings.

* * *

Among other malignant things which the Chicago Times writes against Mr. Blaine, is the following sentence: "An aunt of Blaine is Mother Superior of the convent of Notre Dame, at South Bend, Indianna." This is intended to have a double effect on the predjucies of both Catholics and Protestants.—La Salle Times.

When the fool-killer strikes La Salle county, the Times man will have to crawl into a hole and draw it in after him if he wants to save his scalp-lock.

* * *

The Streator Free Press says there were only about 700 men in line at the Democratic meeting on Monday night. The Press has studied Col. Plumb's position as to the Fox River Road so vigorously of late, (though it hasn't had a word to say "on its own hook" on the subject) that it can't tell the truth to save it, even in so trifling a point as the number of men in a torch-light procession. The truth is there were eight crowded coaches and a baggage car from Ottawa and Grand Ridge alone, who ought to count up to at least 550 and a procession about three blocks long was in waiting when these men arrived and joined in.

Vicinity Items.

The ladies of Streator had a campaign sociable the other night, at which they made the speeches.

The Elgin News says that during its season the packing factory canned 1,024,500 cans of corn, 100,000 cans of pumpkins and about 10,000 cans of tomatoes.

The commissioners have done a good job in fixing the approaches to the Millington bridge. They are now perfectly safe, and Millington can now brag of a good bridge with safe approaches.

T. S. Green, of Verona, representing the Seosson Manufacturing Company, was in Streator, looking over the place as a manufacturing and shipping point. The company is now engaged in making corn cultivators and other agricultural implements, and have a capital stock of $50,000. If they can interest Streator parties to increase the stock to $75,000, they will go there, he said, enlarge their facilities, and establish a manufacturing plant that will be of considerable importance to the city.

About four o'clock Tuesday morning a fire broke out in the barn on the old John U. Cooper farm, southwest of Millbrook, and the loss was very great. The property belonged to Jacob Budd, Esq. There were over a hundred tons of hay burned, 1200 bushels of oats, two mules, lot of farm implements and several out-buildings. The dwelling also took fire, but it was saved by hard work. The light was brilliant and lighted up the country for miles.

The clothing house of Julius Moses, of Streator, was closed Saturday night by Deputy Sheriff Riordan. Judgment was obtained by different parties to the amount of nearly $14,000, as follows: Streator National Bank, $1,419.50; Enstien, Langan & Co., $3,084.63; Mrs. Max Rouble, $525.50; Hirsch, Ellison & Co., $1,294.42; Rinehart, Meyer & Co., $2,140.25; Michaels, Koch & Stern, $955.00; Sweet, Dempster & Co., $1,111.50; Mayer, Engil & Co., $356.50; Staus, Lowell & Co., $2,202.50. It is hoped some compromise may be effected. Julius has been live and progressive, and has only attempted too much with a small capital. He started in business in a modest way there five years ago on the first of October, and has gradually built up a large business.

About 1:30 o'clock last Saturday afternoon fire was discovered issuing from the cut straw room, in the second story of the northeast wing of the Allen Paper Car Wheel Company's works, in the east part of Morris. The room wherein the fire originated was filled with cut straw, and in an instant it was all in flames, presumably igniting from a "hot box" of the shafting running through the room. The alarm was sent in by telephone, but owing to the combustible material in the room and the great distance from town, the fire had good headway before the fire department could reach the place. The loss is principally that which can be replaced by labor, to wit, the rebuilding of the walls on the wing, and replacing woodwork in the second floor of the main building. Mr. Dow, the superintendent, places the loss at $20,000. The building is covered by insurance. On Monday the resident officers received word from the president of the company to immediately receive bids for the rebuilding of the part of the works destroyed.

Faith

In matters of medicine is said to be half a remedy; but in desperate, tantalizing, chronic diseases, such as Rheumatism, it is hard to get up faith. That was the reason why Rev. A. C. Hume, of Indianapolis, preferred to test Athlophoros in about the severest case he could find before he pronounced upon its merits. He writes: "The case was of Rheumatism of twenty years' standing. The patient could not walk except with two canes or by pushing a chair before him. In a short time after taking Athlophoros he could walk without canes or the chair."

"The saddest commentary on the condition to which radicalism has brought this country," says the State Register, "is found in the fact that John M. Hamilton is in reality a candidate for U. S. senator."

Wall street, New York was thrown into wildest commotion on Monday by a rumor that Wm. H. Vanderbilt had committed suicide. The rumor, it is said, "struck the city like a cyclone." In an hour however, it was found that that the rumor was without the least foundation.

C. V. Trout is home from Utah, having come with 18 car loads of fat cattle for the Chicago market in the interest of a Boston stock company. He was just a week on the road.

J. R. Strawn's Chicago cattle are getting over their sickness. It did not prove to be the disease dreaded, but arose from turning half-starved cattle on too rich pasture.

J. C. Vanatta and bride had a regular old fashioned charivari, but as John used to be one of the boys himself he took it with the best grace, treating the boys in good style and sending them home tickled all over.

This extreme tired feeling we have in the spring, fall and during summer denotes torpid liver; we have no appetite and no ambition. Take Dr. Jones' Red Clover Tonic; it corrects these troubles, restores good spirits. It speedily cures dyspepsia, bad breath, piles, pimples, ague and malaria diseases. A perfect tonic, appetizer and blood purifier. Can be taken by the most delicate. Price 50 cents of E. Y. Griggs.

The whole history of the Butler business in brief, says the New York Herald, is this: Butler is an old political freebooter, who has belonged to and has been more or less prominent—generally less—in every party that ever had existence in this country. He went to the July Chicago Convention as a Democratic delegate. He returned with an exceedingly sore head, but was willing to be properly plastered up, and waited patiently to be "approached" by Grover Cleveland. He wasn't approached. He then began the approaching business on his own account, setting sail in his private yacht, and putting into Portsmouth Harbor, where he met Blaine's man of business, William E. Chandler, and sold his services to the Republican party, promising to pose as the candidate for the presidency of the "People's party," the "People's party" at that time comprising Butler and the editor of the New York Sun, to whom Butler immediately announced for publication his intention of so posing. The conditions with Chandler were the payment of all campaign expenses, and the pledge, in the event of Blaine's election, that Butler should dispense the Federal patronage and spoils of Massachusetts. This is the simple story. Butler hoped to do a good stroke of business for himself and Blaine. But the $100,000 from the Republican fund is indefinitely salted down, or if there is anything of it left it can be carried with the party up Salt River in November. And Butler will not have the handling of the Federal spoils in Massachusetts, or anywhere else, for several years to come.

When others are suffering, drop a word of kindness and sympathy. If they are suffering from a cold, give them Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup; a few doses of this valuable remedy will afford instant relief, and a twenty-five cent bottle will cure the worst cough.
